Messrs. Kincer and Vermillion are making rapid progress on the granolithic pavement in front of the court house. If the weather is favorable the work will be finished in a short time.

The "drought" which prevails in Bluefield seems to have had a good effect on Tazewell, as the usual number of drunks show days, and on Saturday nights, has diminished until a drunken man is a rare sight. The vigilance of Sargeant Hays also has something to do with this desired condition. Another thing is the "conspicuousness by their absence" of the saloon men who are giving the town of Tazewell a wide berth.

Getting Out Lumber
Mr. A. S. Higginbotham, counsel for the Carolina Lumber Co., which is owned largely by Tazewell people, returned on Wednesday from Hunt-dale, N. C., where the company has its operations, where he had been on business. Mr. A. J. Doss, formerly of Pocahontas, is general manager of the company, and Mr. Tarter, of Wittens Mills, formerly with the Longpole Lumber Company at Honaker, is connected in an official capacity with the company. The company have several thousand acres of timber in the section of North Carolina bordering on Tennessee, and have begun sawing and getting out the timber.

Careful Motormen
Remarks are heard frequently on the streets of the care exercised by the motormen of the street car in running the car along Tazewell avenue and in "Shakerag," where children are frequently playing on the tracks. It is the greatest wonder that accidents and even casualties have not occurred on the line, but Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Kimball, and Mr. Larimer are cautious and use good judgment for the care of human life, and the life of beasts, which frequently graze upon the tracks.

In a Kindly Neighborhood
"Yes, my property was burned, but my neighbors have looked after me, and I am now in as good shape as I was before my house burned."
The above is a very common saying, but a man need not impose upon his neighbors when the rates of insurance are so reasonable. Your neighbor may be insured and if he burns out you cannot repay what he has already done for you. He assumes no responsibility; why should you? A wise man insures his property; a foolish one carries his own risk. To which class do you belong? There is no middle ground. Write or call on me and I will convince you that the above is true.
